Bational Republican.

FRIDAY MORNINGOCTOBER 26, 1806.

WHEN the great RICHELIEV died his head was separated from his body and preserved. After several months of research the head has at length been found in the possession of an ancient family in Bretagne, and forth-with sent to Paris to the Ministere de l'Inwith sent to Faris to the annistere de l'in-struction Publique. Those who were pres-ent at the opening of the box describe the head as in a wonderful state of preservation. The eyebrows, whiskers, imperial and moustache are of a reddish color, and quite perfect; one eyelid was closed, the other open; The flesh, of course, was black. It bore something of the appearance of a mask, but not at all unpleasing.

THE New York Tribune says: "All reports to the contrary, there has been no actual disorder of any significance in Baltimore, and there is not likely to be if counsels of common sense shall prevail on both sides. The Police Commissioners remain firm in their refusal to obey the Governor's summons, and Gov. Swann, it is said, will proceed with a trial of the charges against them whether or not counsel or witnesses are heard in their defence. It now appears that the worst contingency should be an adjudication by the courts, and not in any case a resort to uscless violence."

Tun New York World sympathizes with

THE New Actions of the Congress of the Congres gress; he is a representative man; but he ought to have been run in a Republican district. His case shows how meanly the radi-cals treat their ablest leaders."

As editor has a hard time. Not only has As entor has a hard time. Not only has be to work hard, but he cannot even run away, with impunity. We observe that "the boys of the office" are advertising for the editor of the Spirit of Jefferson, who has overstayed his time in Baltimore. They do not appear to rate him high—"one hundred dollars in Confederate money."—Richmond Engineers.
